United Visual, Inc Launches All New Corporate Website

April 27, 2009 Itasca, Ill. – United Visual, Inc, a leading provider of professional integrated audio and video communication systems for organizations in both corporate and education markets, announced today the launch of its new corporate website at: www.unitedvisual.com.

The revamped website features a clean, modern look and feel, reflecting United Visual's corporate identity as a state-of-the-art integrated technology solutions provider. The site's homepage welcomes visitors with a large slide show, displaying the most advanced products and systems in real world settings such as classrooms and conference rooms. The site features a seamless design, incorporating contrast in color and readability in text, as well as user-friendliness in its overall organization. Aside from its appealing aesthetics, the site offers:

- Enhanced new search engine provides fast and relevant customized search results.
- Improved navigation allows users of the site to browse by solution or vertical market segment.
- New Support section helps maximize the return on investment in United Visual provided technologies by expediting support issues, thereby enhancing the overall business performance and competitiveness.
- Expanded B2B e-commerce creates a more desirable outlet for selecting and purchasing from United Visual's collection of products and services.

United Visual's new site better communicates the firm's progressive and dedicated approach to providing the best technology solutions to the markets we serve with an improved user experience. United Visual, Inc. is ranked in the top 50 System Integrators in the nation by SCN magazine and provides technology solutions to over a thousand Corporate, Education, and Government clients around the globe. Recent completed projects include a ProAV Spotlight Award winning system integration project for The Illinois College of Optometry in Chicago, IL.
