United Visual, Inc Appoints Robert C. Carlson as Chief Operating Officer.

July 08, 2009 Itasca, Ill. – United Visual, Inc., an award-winning professional audio and video systems integration firm, announced the appointment of Robert C. Carlson in the newly created role as Chief Operating Officer (COO). This role will focus on ensuring United Visual, Inc. continues to provide industry leading audiovisual system integration service.

Robert will oversee the day-to-day operations of the company, including oversight of the company's executive management team. Robert will report directly to United Visual's Board of Directors with the prime responsibility of streamlining the company's operations and positioning the company to continually achieve profit and growth targets.

Robert brings vast experience and knowledge in the Pro A/V business having spent his entire career serving this industry. He has held many roles within United Visual over the past 36 years including Service Manager, MIS Director and most recently Vice President and Operations Manager. Robert is passionate and dedicated to constant improvement with an acute focus on continually advancing and evolving United Visual's business processes.

In his tenure as Vice President, Robert demonstrated great leadership and worked diligently to identify many opportunities for improvement and accumulated a vast knowledge of the entire company's operations. In a statement made by the Board of Directors, "We are confident that this appointment will allow United Visual to react more quickly to the demands of this fast-paced industry, while simultaneously positioning us to capitalize on strong market opportunities."

United Visual, Inc. has been active and influential in the Chicago region since their inception over 60 years ago and is ranked in the top 50 System Integrators in the nation by SCN magazine. Recent completed projects include a 2009 ProAV Spotlight Award winning system integration project for The Illinois College of Optometry in Chicago, IL.
